Project Impact

In July 2023, RCQNM began supporting the We Can Foundation, which nurtures 45 underprivileged children through a holistic education and well-being program. The initiative focuses on encouraging regular attendance and active participation in learning, monitoring and improving academic performance, and promoting physical and mental well-being within a safe and joyful environment.

The program also works to prevent school dropouts by maintaining consistent engagement and providing targeted support to children facing academic or personal challenges — helping them stay motivated, confident, and on track toward a brighter future.

Beneficiaries

45 children. All children are from the low economic strata

Type of Intervention

Through activities such as Prayer and Gratitude practices, Physical Activity and Yoga, Playtime, and focused Academic Support, we help children develop holistically and grow into well-rounded, capable individuals. To support this, we conducted 28 counselling sessions, school visits, and parent interaction programs, and provided assistance with school fees to ensure continued learning.

As part of fostering joy and relaxation, a fun-filled trip to a waterpark was also organized, giving the children a well-deserved treat and memorable experience.
