

Kinnari Foundation

- » Kinnari Foundation runs a physical and educational classes for children and women since 2001. It also runs special summer programmes and hobby classes on a regular basis such as gymnastics, creative writing, drama, dance, craft and painting. Nearly 300 students participate. It also runs a play school for low income strata on a regular basis.
- » 50% of the fee charged to the affluent students is given to the faculty for their efforts (which is mostly housewives doing part-time work). The balance 50% of the fee is completely utilized for giving educational aid – fees of school children particularly of urban poor (e.g. children of our drivers, laundryman, servants, dhobis etc.). After effective scrutiny of documents such as Bonafide certificate, result, parents income etc. the fee of deserving student is paid by cheque only in the name of School. Each child gets maximum of Rs.4,500/-
